Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Purchase Agreement

On November 9, 2026, 106 Bremer Avenue, LLC ("Property Owner"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Star Equity Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Colfax Purchase Agreement") with DWG Capital Partners, LLC ("DWG"), an unaffiliated third party, pursuant to which the Property Owner agreed to sell certain real property located at 106 Bremer Avenue, Colfax, WI ("Colfax Premises") to DWG, for a purchase price of $5.2 million, subject to the terms and conditions of the Colfax Purchase Agreement. The net proceeds to be received by the Property Owner from the Colfax Purchase Agreement will be reduced by transaction commissions and expenses incurred in connection with the sale.

Simultaneous with the consummation of the Colfax Purchase Agreement, Timber Technologies Solutions Inc. ("Timber Technologies"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and current occupant of the Colfax Premises, will enter into a commercial single-tenant triple net lease (the "Lease Agreement") with DWG, or its permitted assignee, as landlord, pursuant to which Timber Technologies will lease back the Colfax Premises for a term commencing upon the execution of the Lease Agreement and ending on the 20th annual anniversary thereof, unless earlier terminated or extended for two renewal periods for an additional 10 years each in accordance with the terms of the Lease Agreement. The Lease is structured as an absolute net lease pursuant to which Timber Technologies will generally be responsible for insurance premiums, maintenance, utilities, taxes and other expenses, associated with the Colfax Premises. The Company will guarantee the obligations of Timber Technologies under the Lease Agreement.

The Company anticipates that the closing of the Colfax Purchase Agreement, including the execution of the Lease Agreement will occur in the fourth calendar quarter of 2026, subject to the satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions and contingencies for transactions of this type. DWG may terminate the Colfax Purchase Agreement for any reason or no reason before expiration of the due diligence period, as provided in the Colfax Purchase Agreement. Closing is scheduled to occur within 30 days after expiration of that period, subject to each party's right to extend closing once for up to 30 days and DWG's additional right to extend closing once for up to 15 days, and other extensions expressly provided in the Colfax Purchase Agreement. Accordingly, closing may occur after the fourth calendar quarter of 2026. Such contingencies include satisfactory title and insurance commitment, satisfactory survey review, environmental condition review, the Buyer's ability to obtain appropriate financing, release of all monetary liens on the Colfax Premises, and satisfaction of other due diligence items as set forth in the Colfax Purchase Agreement. Following the closing, Timber Technologies will continue to operate its business from the Colfax Premises pursuant to the Colfax Purchase Agreement and Lease Agreement.

The foregoing summary of the Colfax Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such agreement, which is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1, and which is incorporated by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

(106 Bremer Avenue, Colfax, Wisconsin 54730)

THIS PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and dated as of the 9th day of November, 2026 (the "Effective Date"), by and between DWG CAPITAL PARTNERS, LLC, a California limited liability company ("Buyer"), and 106 BREMER AVENUE, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Seller").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Seller is the owner of fee simple title to that certain real property having an address of 106 Bremer Avenue, Colfax, Wisconsin 54730, consisting of approximately [10.76] acres of land, as more particularly described on Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, together with the building containing approximately 68,976 square feet and all other improvements and fixtures located thereon, and all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto (all being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Property");

WHEREAS, the Property serves as the headquarters and operating facility of Timber Technologies Solutions, Inc, a wholly owned subsidiary of Star Equity Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Star") and affiliate of the Seller; and

WHEREAS, Seller desires to sell and Buyer desires to purchase the Property upon the terms hereinafter set forth, and concurrently with the Closing, Buyer, as landlord, and Timber Technologies Solutions Inc., as tenant, shall enter into the Leaseback (as hereinafter defined) for the Property.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants of the parties hereinafter expressed, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, it is hereby agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I
PURCHASE AND SALE

1.1 Agreement to Sell and Purchase. In accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, on the date of Closing (as hereinafter defined), Seller agrees to sell to Buyer, and Buyer agrees to purchase from Seller, the Property.

1.2 Purchase Price. The purchase price (the "Purchase Price") to be paid to Seller for the sale of the Property to Buyer as provided for herein shall be Five Million Two Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($5,200,000.00), which is predicated on an 8.57% capitalization rate applied to Year 1 Annual Base Rent under the Leaseback of $445,540.00. The Purchase Price shall be paid by Buyer, subject to credit, debit and adjustment as hereinafter provided and subject to all the terms and conditions herein contained, as follows:

(a) Within three (3) business days after the Effective Date, Buyer shall deposit as earnest money in escrow the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($25,000.00) (such sum, together with any interest thereon, being hereinafter collectively referred to and held as the "Deposit") with Chicago Title Company, 725 S. Figueroa Street, Suite 200, Los Angeles, California 90017, Attn: Cheryl Yanez, Cheryl.Yanez@ctt.com, (213) 448-4315 (being herein sometimes referred to as the "Title Company").

(b) The Deposit shall be non-refundable to Buyer upon deposit with the Title Company, except that the Deposit shall be returned to Buyer in the event this Agreement is terminated by Buyer (i) pursuant to Section 4.4 on account of the Phase I Environmental Report or the Survey (each as hereinafter defined), (ii) on account of a Seller default under Section 5.2, (iii) on account of a title defect pursuant to Section 4.1(a), (iv) pursuant to Article VII on account of casualty or condemnation, or (v) on account of the failure of any condition to Buyer's obligations set forth in Section 4.1 (each of the foregoing, a "Refundable Termination"). In the event the Phase I Environmental Report or the Survey reveals a material issue, the Deposit shall remain fully refundable to Buyer through the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. Upon expiration of the Due Diligence Period, and subject to the satisfaction or resolution of any outstanding survey or environmental matters identified in a Buyer Objection Notice (as hereinafter defined), the Deposit shall be non-refundable to Buyer except in the event of a Refundable Termination.

(c) Buyer shall, on the date of Closing, pay the Purchase Price, subject to credit for application of the Deposit and subject to credit and adjustment as provided in Section 1.3 hereof, by wire transfer of good, current, immediately available funds deposited with the Title Company, for disbursement to Seller, on or before 2:00 p.m. (Central Time) on the date of Closing.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, One Hundred and No/100 Dollars ($100.00) of the Deposit shall be non-refundable to Buyer and distributed to Seller upon any termination of this Agreement as independent consideration (the "Independent Consideration") for Seller entering into this Agreement and granting Buyer the right to inspect and evaluate the Property during the Due Diligence Period. The Independent Consideration is not refundable to Buyer under any circumstance except if Closing does not occur due to Seller default, but will be applied to the Purchase Price upon the Closing.

The Title Company shall hold the Deposit and make delivery of the Deposit to the party entitled thereto under the terms hereof. The Deposit shall be held in a federally insured, interest bearing account, and all interest and income thereon shall be added to and shall become a part of the Deposit. Buyer and Seller shall execute such escrow instructions as the Title Company may reasonably require that are consistent with this Agreement.

1.3 Adjustments and Closing Costs. It is anticipated that the Leaseback will be an absolute "triple net" lease under which the tenant pays all real estate taxes, assessments, insurance, utilities, maintenance and repairs for the Property, and, accordingly, there shall be no proration of real estate taxes, utility costs or similar operating expenses at Closing, and Seller (or the tenant under the Leaseback) shall remain responsible for all such items whether attributable to periods before or after Closing. Rent under the Leaseback for the month in which Closing occurs, together with the Security Deposit required under the Leaseback, shall be paid at Closing as provided in Section 1.6(b).

Closing costs shall be allocated as follows. At or prior to Closing, (i) Seller shall pay all closing costs customarily allocated to the seller of commercial real property in the county in which the Property is located, including, without limitation, the premium for the base owner's policy of title insurance and the related title search and commitment charges, the Wisconsin real estate transfer fee, if such is required to be paid, and any other transfer or documentary taxes, the cost of recording any instruments required to cure title matters, one-half of the escrow fees charged by the Title Company, the fees of STREAM Capital Partners payable under Seller's separate written agreement, and the transaction fee payable to Poseidon Asset Group pursuant to Section 2.2; (ii) Buyer shall pay the cost of all third-party reports, except Environmental Reports obtained in connection with this transaction, including, without limitation, the Survey, any appraisal of the Property and any property condition assessment, provided that Buyer's aggregate contribution toward the cost of such third-party reports shall not exceed Seven Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($7,000.00), and Seller shall pay all such costs in excess of such amount, up to a maximum of Five Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($5,000.00), and provided further that Buyer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to utilize existing reports made available by Seller in lieu of ordering new reports where such existing reports are reasonably acceptable to Buyer and its lender; and (iii) Buyer shall pay the cost of any endorsements and extended coverage desired by Buyer to the owner's policy, the premium for any lender's policy of title insurance, the cost of recording the deed and any mortgage, one-half of the escrow fees charged by the Title Company, and all costs of Buyer's acquisition financing. Seller shall pay the cost of any Environmental Reports, and shall be required to obtain a Phase I report. Any additional environmental testing requested by Buyer beyond a Phase I Environmental Report shall be governed by Section 4.4.

Except as expressly provided in this Section 1.3 or as expressly provided elsewhere in this Agreement, Buyer and Seller shall pay their own respective costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incidental to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

1.4 Possession. Seller's affiliate, Timber Technologies Solutions, Inc., shall retain possession of the Property following Closing pursuant to the terms of the Leaseback, the form of which is attached as Exhibit C hereto.

1.5 Closing. The closing (herein referred to as the "Closing") of the transactions contemplated hereby shall occur on a date designated by Buyer by not less than five (5) business days' written notice to Seller, which date shall be on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the expiration of the Due Diligence Period; provided, however, Buyer or Seller may each extend the date of Closing one time for a maximum of thirty (30) days by written notice to the other party delivered on or before the then scheduled date of Closing. In addition to the foregoing, Buyer shall have the right, in its sole discretion and without the consent of Seller, to extend the date of Closing one (1) time for up to fifteen (15) days by written notice to Seller delivered on or before the then scheduled date of Closing (as the same may have been extended). No additional deposit or other consideration shall be required in connection with such extension, and all references in this Agreement to the date of Closing shall mean the date of Closing as so extended. The Closing shall take place through escrow with the Title Company as a mail away closing, which shall be facilitated by delivery of the documents and funds to the Title Company by overnight courier, personal delivery or electronic means acceptable to the Title Company. The Title Company shall be authorized and instructed to record all appropriate documents regarding this transaction.

1.6 Documents at Closing.

(a) On the date of Closing, Seller shall execute (or cause to be executed) and deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Title Company the following:

(i) A special warranty deed in recordable form (the "Deed"), transferring and conveying to Buyer good and marketable fee simple title to the Property, subject only to the lien of general real estate taxes not yet due and payable and those easements, restrictions, conditions and other exceptions approved or deemed approved by Buyer pursuant to Section 4.1(a) (the "Permitted Exceptions").

(ii) A standard form owner's affidavit and gap indemnity, executed by Seller against mechanics' liens and parties in possession (other than the tenant under the Leaseback), and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the Title Company in order to issue to Buyer an owner's policy of title insurance in the amount of the Purchase Price, with the standard exceptions deleted (the cost of any such extended coverage to be paid by Buyer as provided in Section 1.3).

(v) A non-exclusive assignment to Buyer, without warranty, of all assignable warranties, guaranties, permits, plans and intangible property relating to the Property but not the business in existence on the Property, subject to the tenant's right to enforce the same during the term of the Leaseback.

(vi) Evidence reasonably satisfactory to Buyer and the Title Company of the existence, good standing and authority of Seller, the tenant under the Leaseback and each Guarantor (as hereinafter defined), and of the authority of the persons executing documents on their behalf, including the resolutions or consents described in Section 2.1(c).

(vii) A certificate of Seller confirming that the representations and warranties of Seller set forth in Article II remain true and correct in all material respects as of the date of Closing.

Buyer may, by written notice delivered to Seller within twenty (20) days after the Effective Date, request additional diligence materials reasonably related to the Property, the tenant under the Leaseback or the Guarantor, and the same shall be deemed Seller Deliverables.

(b) The "Due Diligence Period" shall commence on the later of (i) the Effective Date, or (ii) the date on which Buyer has received all Seller Deliverables (including any additional materials timely requested pursuant to Section 1.7(a)), which date Buyer shall confirm by written notice to Seller (the "Diligence Commencement Date"), and shall expire at 5:00 p.m. (Central Time) on the thirtieth (30th) day after the Diligence Commencement Date. Buyer shall have until the expiration of the Due Diligence Period to deliver to Seller written notice of any objections to matters shown in the Title Commitment or the Survey (a "Buyer Objection Notice"). Seller may, but shall not be obligated to, cure any such objection, and shall notify Buyer within five (5) business days after receipt of a Buyer Objection Notice whether Seller will do so; Seller's failure to respond shall be deemed an election not to cure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall cause all mortgages, deeds of trust, judgment liens, mechanics' liens and other monetary liens encumbering the Property to be released at or prior to Closing, whether or not Buyer objects thereto. Buyer shall not disapprove the lien of general real estate taxes for the current tax fiscal year not yet due and payable. 4.2 Conditions to Seller's Obligations. The obligations of Seller to consummate the transactions provided for in this Agreement shall be subject to the satisfaction of each of the following conditions on or before the date of Closing, subject to the right of Seller to waive any one or more of such conditions in writing: (a) Buyer shall have delivered the balance of the Purchase Price and performed all of its covenants and obligations under this Agreement in all material respects; and (b) the representations and warranties of Buyer set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of Closing.

4.3 Failure of Conditions. In the event that any one or more of the matters referred to in each of the subsections of Section 4.1 has not been reviewed and approved and the condition precedent set forth in each such subsection thereby satisfied on or before the date of Closing (or, if earlier, the date for satisfaction thereof) for any reason other than owing to a failure of performance by Buyer, Buyer may, at its option, (a) terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination, in which event the parties shall have no further liability to one another hereunder except as expressly provided herein, (b) waive such condition and proceed to Closing, or (c) if the failure constitutes a Seller default, exercise its remedies under Section 5.2.

(b) In the event that any one or more of the matters referred to in each of the subsections of Section 4.2 has not been reviewed and approved and the condition precedent set forth in each such subsection thereby satisfied on or before the date of Closing (or, if earlier, the date for satisfaction thereof) for any reason other than owing to a failure of performance by Seller, Seller may, at its option, elect to terminate this Agreement and, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the parties shall have no further liability to one another hereunder.

4.4 Survey and Environmental Matters. If the Survey or the Phase I Environmental Report reveals a Material Issue (which means (A) with respect to the Survey, any matter that materially and adversely affects title to, or the use, value or financing of, the Property, as reasonably determined by Buyer, and (B) with respect to the Phase I Environmental Report or any further assessment thereof, any recognized environmental condition for which further assessment or remediation is recommended), and Buyer delivers a Buyer Objection Notice identifying such Material Issue prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, then (a) Buyer may terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination at any time prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, and (b) if Buyer does not so terminate, the parties shall cooperate in good faith to resolve such Material Issue prior to Closing (including through any further assessment recommended in the Phase I Environmental Report, the cost of which shall be borne by Seller as a third-party report under Section 1.3 and any remediation, the cost of which shall be borne by Seller or the tenant under the Leaseback or, upon mutual agreement of Seller and Buyer, reflected as a reduction in the Purchase Price; provided that Buyer shall have no obligation to perform or pay for any remediation), and if such issue is not resolved to Buyer's reasonable satisfaction prior to Closing, Buyer may terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination.

In addition to the foregoing, Seller may elect, by written notice to Buyer delivered within five (5) business days after receipt of Buyer's Objection Notice detailing the Material Issue(s), not to pay for any further assessment recommended in the Survey or Phase I Environmental Report or not to perform or pay for any remediation (a "Seller Election"), and Seller's failure to respond within such period shall be deemed a Seller Election. Following a Seller Election, Buyer may either (i) terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination and receive reimbursement from Seller of Buyer's documented out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with this transaction, including third-party report costs, lender fees and reasonable attorneys' fees, not to exceed Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($50,000.00) ("Buyer's Costs"), if there is no disagreement as to the materiality of the Issues, or Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) if there is a good faith dispute as to the materiality of the Material Issues, or (ii) proceed to Closing, and the date of Closing shall be extended if necessary so that Buyer has not less than ten (10) business days after the Seller Election to make such choice. If the cost of the remediation Seller declines to perform, as reasonably estimated by the environmental consultant that prepared the applicable report, exceeds Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($50,000.00), Seller may instead, in its sole discretion and by written notice delivered with or after its Seller Election, terminate this Agreement, in which event the Deposit shall be returned to Buyer, Seller shall pay Buyer's Costs within ten (10) business days, and neither party shall have any further obligation hereunder except those that expressly survive termination. Such termination shall not constitute a Seller default and shall not be subject to Buyer's election under clause (ii).

If Buyer proceeds to Closing following a Seller Election, the following conditions apply:

(1) The condition Seller declined to remediate, as described in the applicable report (an "Identified Condition"), shall be described on Schedule 1.4 to the Leaseback, and Tenant's obligation to remediate the Identified Condition shall be limited as provided in Section 1.4 of the Leaseback. Except as so provided, nothing in this Section 4.4, including Buyer's election to proceed to Closing, shall limit Tenant's obligations under the Leaseback or Guarantor's obligations under the Guaranty with respect to any Hazardous Substances (as defined in the Leaseback), whether present on, under or about the Property before, on or after the Closing.

(2) Seller shall cause Tenant to obtain, effective as of the Closing, the pollution legal liability insurance required by Section 1.4 of the Leaseback with respect to any environmental Identified Condition, and the issuance of such insurance shall be a condition to Buyer's obligation to close. If such insurance has not been obtained by the date of Closing (as the same may be extended under this Section 4.4), Buyer may terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination.

ARTICLE V
DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

5.1 Buyer Default. If Buyer fails to consummate the purchase of the Property in breach of this Agreement and such failure continues for five (5) business days after written notice from Seller, Seller, as its sole and exclusive remedy, may terminate this Agreement and receive the Deposit as liquidated damages, the parties agreeing that Seller's actual damages would be difficult to ascertain and that the Deposit is a reasonable estimate thereof. The foregoing shall not limit Buyer's indemnity and confidentiality obligations that expressly survive termination.

5.2 Seller Default. If Seller fails to consummate the sale of the Property and otherwise breaches this Agreement in any material respect, and such failure continues for five (5) business days after written notice from Buyer (provided no notice or cure period shall apply to a failure to close on the date of Closing), Buyer may terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination and receive reimbursement from Seller of Buyer's documented out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with this transaction, including third-party report costs, lender fees and reasonable attorneys' fees, not to exceed Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($50,000.00).

ARTICLE VI COVENANTS

6.1 Post Termination Covenants. In the event this Agreement is terminated, then, at the written request of Seller, Buyer will return or destroy all Seller Deliverables and other Confidential Information (as defined in Section 8.10) and, at Seller's further request, will deliver to Seller copies of all third-party surveys and reports that were paid for by Seller, without representation or warranty. Buyer may retain any reports obtained at Buyer’s own cost, subject to Section 8.10.

6.2 Buyer Investigations. Throughout the term of this Agreement, Buyer and its agents, lenders and consultants shall have the right to enter the Property upon reasonable prior notice and at times reasonably agreed to by Seller to conduct inspections, surveys, environmental assessments and property condition assessments. Seller shall have the right to cause a Seller representative to be present at any such entry. Buyer shall not perform any invasive or destructive testing at the Property without Seller's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed if such testing is recommended in the Phase I Environmental Report. Buyer hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Seller and the Property harmless from and against any cost, expense, lien, claim or judgment for personal injury or property damage to the extent caused by the acts or omissions of Buyer or its agents or contractors in the course of such entry; provided, however, Buyer shall have no liability for the mere discovery of any pre-existing condition at the Property. This indemnification shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the Closing.

6.3 Seller Covenants. Between the Effective Date and the Closing, Seller shall (a) operate and maintain the Property in the ordinary course and in substantially its present condition, ordinary wear and tear and casualty excepted; (b) not enter into any lease, easement, covenant, restriction or other agreement affecting the Property, or voluntarily encumber the Property, without Buyer's prior written consent; (c) promptly notify Buyer of any event or circumstance that renders any representation of Seller untrue in any material respect; and (d) not market the Property for sale or solicit, negotiate or accept any offer for the sale or financing of the Property.

6.4 Section 1031 Exchange. Either party may structure the transaction contemplated hereby as part of a tax-deferred exchange under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the other party shall reasonably cooperate therewith, including by consenting to an assignment of this Agreement to a qualified intermediary, provided that the cooperating party incurs no additional cost, liability or delay and the exchanging party remains liable under this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII
CASUALTY; CONDEMNATION

7.1 Casualty. In the event of damage or destruction of all or any part of the Property prior to Closing such that the tenant would have the right under the Leaseback to terminate the Leaseback, or the cost to repair which is reasonably estimated to exceed $250,000.00, Buyer may, at its option, exercisable by written notice to Seller, either (i) terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination, whereupon, except as expressly provided herein, neither party will have any further obligations hereunder, or (ii) continue under this Agreement, whereupon Seller will assign to Buyer at Closing its interest in and to any insurance proceeds payable as a result of such damage or destruction (other than proceeds of business interruption insurance attributable to the period prior to Closing), less any portion first reimbursed to Seller for the actual costs of restoration work performed by Seller prior to Closing, and such proceeds shall be held and applied in accordance with the Leaseback. In the event of any lesser damage or destruction, Buyer shall have no right to terminate this Agreement on account thereof, but Seller shall assign such proceeds to Buyer at Closing as aforesaid, and the tenant shall restore the Property in accordance with the Leaseback.

7.2 Condemnation. In the event of the taking of all or any material part of the Property (not including the taking of strips less than ten (10) feet in width running along adjacent roadways that do not affect access, parking or the building) prior to Closing by eminent domain or condemnation, or the commencement of any such proceeding, Buyer may, at its option, exercisable by written notice to Seller, either (i) terminate this Agreement as a Refundable Termination, whereupon, except as expressly provided herein, neither party will have any further obligation hereunder, or (ii) continue under this Agreement, whereupon Seller will assign to Buyer at Closing its interest in and to any award payable as a result of such taking, to be held and applied in accordance with the Leaseback. If such taking would entitle the tenant to terminate the Leaseback under Section 11.1 thereof, Seller may also terminate this Agreement by written notice to Buyer, in which event the Deposit shall be returned to Buyer as a Refundable Termination.

ARTICLE VIII
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

8.1 Binding Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the parties named herein and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

8.2 Assignment. Any other assignment by Buyer shall require the prior written consent of Seller, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Seller may not assign its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of Buyer.

8.3 Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly given if (i) delivered personally (including by nationally recognized overnight courier service), (ii) sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or (iii) sent by email, with a copy by one of the foregoing methods if the email is a notice of default or termination, unless receipt of the email is confirmed in writing by the recipient (other than by automatic reply), and addressed as follows:

8.6 Performance on Business Days. If any date for the occurrence of an event or act under this Agreement falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in the State of Wisconsin, then the time for the occurrence of such event or act shall be extended to the next succeeding business day.

8.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with all the Exhibits attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein, constitutes the entire undertaking between the parties hereto with respect to its subject matter and supersedes any and all prior agreements, arrangements and understandings between the parties, including the LOI. 8.9 AS IS. Except for the representations and warranties set forth in Article II and in the documents delivered at Closing, Buyer acknowledges that no representations or warranties of any kind have been made by Seller with respect to the Property, and the Property shall be accepted by Buyer in "as is, where is" condition, "with all faults." Nothing in this Section 8.9 shall limit or impair (a) any obligation of the tenant under the Leaseback, including its maintenance, repair, environmental and indemnification obligations, or (b) any obligation of the Guarantors under the Guaranty, all of which shall apply notwithstanding the foregoing.

8.10 Confidentiality. Buyer agrees that the terms of this Agreement and all Seller Deliverables and other non-public information furnished by or on behalf of Seller (collectively, "Confidential Information") shall be held in confidence; provided that Buyer may disclose Confidential Information to its members, investors, prospective tenants-in-common, lenders, attorneys, accountants, consultants and other advisors who need to know such information in connection with this transaction, in each case who are informed of the confidential nature of such information and directed to keep it confidential (“Buyer Representatives”), and as required by law. Buyer acknowledges that Star Equity Holdings, Inc. is a publicly traded company, that Confidential Information may constitute material non-public information, and that Buyer and the Buyer Representatives are subject to applicable securities laws, including the Securities

Exchange Act of 1934, restricting trading on the basis of such information. Buyer shall be responsible for any breach of this Section 8.10 by the Buyer Representatives. Notwithstanding, anything contained herein this Section 8.10, the identity of the Tenant and Guarantor shall only be disclosed on an as needed basis, and Landlord agrees to attempt to keep the identity of the Tenant and Guarantor unknown unless the identification thereof is deemed necessary. If this Agreement is terminated, Buyer shall, at Seller's request, promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information. This Section 8.10 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for a period of two (2) years.

8.11 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof.

8.12 Leaseback and Guaranty. At Closing, Buyer (or its permitted assignee), as landlord, and Timber Technologies Solutions Inc., as tenant, will execute and deliver a net lease agreement for the Property in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit C (the "Leaseback"). Only the modifications as the parties may mutually agree in writing on or prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period may be made. Additionally, a guaranty of the tenant's obligations under the Leaseback in the form attached as Exhibit E to the Leaseback (the "Guaranty") shall be executed by Star Equity Holdings, Inc
